“It's better to find success through God than finding it on one's own merits; some who usually find their own success become boastful, where through God, it's with gratitude.” — Anthony Liccione

“We owe some of our successes to people who did not want to help us more than we do to those who have helped us.” — Mokokoma Mokhonoana

Relationships based on obligation lack dignity.
Wayne Dyer

All the ills of mankind, all the tragic misfortunes that fill the history books, all the political blunders, all the failures of the great leaders have arisen merely from a lack of skill at dancing.
Moliere

“The man who never has money enough to pay his debts has too much of something else.” -
James Lendall Basford

“If you think nobody cares if you’re alive, try missing a couple of car payments - Earl Wilson

You cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today. Abraham Lincoln

The economy is little more than a barometer that registers the highs and lows of consciousness.
Eric Butterworth

We must become bigger than we have been: more courageous, greater in spirit, larger in outlook. We must become members of a new race, overcoming petty prejudice, owing our ultimate allegiance not to nations but to our fellow men within the human community. Haile Selassie
