Holy Now

DAILY WORD: Experiences

AFFIRMATION: I live fully from my divine identity.

There are experiences in life that satisfy my soul and lead me on paths of discovery to enhance my mind, body, and spirit. As I recognize the presence of Spirit within, I acknowledge that I am a spiritual being connected to the source of all power, all good, all love, and more. My consciousness awakens to the allness of living my spiritual connection in both everyday and critical matters. It's a whole and holy happening that empowers and enlivens me to think and do what is best for me.

My experience of being one with infinite wisdom leaves more than an impression on me. This sacredness inspires me to live fully from my divine identity.

SACRED Text: "Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness." Luke 4:1
